

BACHMAN CHAPEL LETTER.

The Sad Death of Mrs. M. L. Kinard—Cold Weather Brings Good Times. Other Matters.

Slighs, December 3.—It becomes the sad duty of this correspondent to chronicle the death of one of his best neighbors and friends. The summons came not unexpectedly on last Friday morning to Mrs. Sophia Kinard, the most faithful and devoted wife of Mr. M. L. Kinard. For the past six months Mrs. Kinard had suffered the most excruciating pain with cancer of the left breast. I visited her several times during her illness and found her, as I had always found her, bearing her sufferings and enduring her pain with the most Christian fortitude I have ever seen displayed by anybody under such circumstances.

I had known the deceased for a little more than thirty years. I have been with her in the church, in the home and in the social circle, and I don't think I ever knew a more devoted woman in all my life. She was a model woman. I never saw her wear a sad countenance. She was always cheerful and looked on the bright side of life, never complaining but always showing an expression of hope. What a help is such a life, not only to the family circle, but to the whole community in which it is spent!

I want to say a word of consolation to the husband and children who have been bereft of so noble a wife and mother. Do not look upon her as being lost, but thank God that her days of suffering are ended. You have the assurance of God's word that she is at rest from all her earthly toils and pains. Let your life be as hers and your separation will only be for a short while.

The deceased was a consistent member of Bachman Chapel Lutheran church and her seat was never vacant as long as she was able to attend the worship of God. Her age was 63 years, 1 month and 12 days. She leaves to mourn a husband, two sons, one daughter, and fifteen grandchildren; one daughter had preceded her to the spirit land.

The body was laid to rest in Bachman Chapel grave yard on Saturday, her pastor, the Rev. P. H. E. Derrick, conducting the funeral services. The sermon was very appropriate. The text was taken from 1 Thessalonians, 4th chapter, and from the 13th to 18th verses. The family have the deepest sympathy of the community.

Mr. J. Clinton Kinard is working in the Newberry knitting mill.

Mr. Eddie Kinard, the invalid son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kinard, has been quite ill for the past two weeks.

The cold weather is here. The hog is killed, the 'simmon beer will be made this week, so Brother G. B. D., you can see that we are about ready for that rabbit hunt, and you are invited to come along with the editor and doctor. When we get Minnaugh's old grey hound down here on Cannon's creek it is going to take several to help carry the rabbits.

Mr. L. L. Moore, who was thrown from his wagon a little more than two months ago and crippled, is able to walk with the assistance of crutches.

There is no danger of a controversy between us, Mr. Editor. You have taken my side of the question and I don't care to swap sides with you. I have often heard that the rat with the shortest tail is the one which can get through the hole the quickest, but it won't work in every case. The editor can beat any rat I ever saw climbing out of a hole. But let us look forward to the future; the darkest hour is always before day. It will soon be time for our editor to go back to law making again, and we are looking forward to him to frame one of the best county government laws we ever had. And Bill Hill is going to be supervisor, so you can all see that there is a bright prospect in the near future.

Any one wanting a good milch cow with a young calf will do well to see Mr. J. A. C. Kibler before buying.

There is going to be a lot of moving among our white people this winter.

Mrs. J. K. Epps and son Wilbur and two little daughters visited her sister, Mrs. Richard Martin, and family, of Longshore, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. R. E. Hunter is spending a while with her sister at Newberry. Christmas is right upon us. The children have already begun to talk Santa Claus.

Our school observed Thanksgiving day. There were no services in any of the country churches, but work generally was suspended. Hunting was the principal enjoyment of the young. T. J. W.

ST. PAULS ITEMS.

Address By The Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Cronk on Sunday—Flourishing Schools—Other Matters.

Slighs, December 3.—The Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Cronk, of the Lutheran mission in Atlanta, will address the congregation at St. Pauls on Sunday.

Some wheat has been sown in this section, but not as much as usual. More oats than usual have been sown.

Boinest & Co. commenced sawing lumber this week at the old stand near Mr. L. I. Epting's.

Mr. G. B. Aull and Mr. LeRoy Wedaman have been sawing shingles the past week for Mr. Sam Williamson.

The school here is flourishing under the management of Miss Margaret Law Johnstone. Miss Johnstone is a good teacher and disciplinarian, and the school can not but thrive and the students advance under her management.

Miss Mary Lou Norris is teaching the Jolly Street school. Miss Norris taught this school three or four years in succession and she gave such thorough satisfaction that she was again elected to teach this year.

Mr. W. W. Berley is clearing up the grove at Pomaria preparatory to planting a pecan orchard.

Mr. Jacob Livingston is preparing to build a house where one was burned last summer.

I am sorry to hear of Mr. Aull's loss by fire at Jalapa. Every one should carry some insurance on buildings.

WAS MR. LEHR SNUBBED?

Miss Alice Roosevelt's Reported "Cut" at Horse Show.

New York, November 20.—Children of well-known families were conspicuous at the Horse Show today. The four tots of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Allen, three girls and a boy, the former all in white frocks, and the two little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Gould, also dressed in white, attracted the greatest attention during the morning.

A report that the daughter of the President had snubbed Mr. Harry Lehr, at the show yesterday, caused considerable comment. Of this alleged occurrence the New York World says:

"Alice Roosevelt 'cut' Harry Lehr at the Horse Show. Something has happened which has marred the pleasant friendship which once existed between them. In front of 5,000 onlookers Mr. Lehr got his rebuff.

"He came in at 4 o'clock, a symphony in blue. He had on a smart sack suit of undressed worsted, black boots and derby, a tiny stick of black malacca and a puff scarf of dark blue, pinned with a superb sapphire. He paused at the Vanderbilt box for a moment, shook hands with Mrs. Alfred and Mrs. Reginald, and then started to go the rounds. Miss Roosevelt was the centre of an animated group in the Gerry box. She was looking directly at Mr. Lehr as he came up. He was all smiles. Off came his hat in a twinkling. Miss Roosevelt deliberately looked through Mr. Lehr without the slightest sign of recognition, then turned her back and busied herself adjusting her big white boa.

"Mr. Lehr turned purple, started visibly and hurried up the promenade. Evidently he wanted to make sure, for he suddenly turned round and walked back. This time he gazed steadfastly at Miss Roosevelt, but didn't attempt to bow. It was very plain that the snub was intentional. Miss Roosevelt looked back, but didn't bow."

IT MUST BE TRUE.

Newberry Readers must Come to that Conclusion.

It is not the telling of a single case in Newberry but scores of citizens testify. Endorsement by people you know bears the stamp of truth. The following is one of the public statements made in this locality about Doan's Kidney Pills.

M. M. Graham salesman in furniture store on Main st says: "My back hurt me for a long time especially at night when I have lain awake many a time suffering with it. There was a nasty dull aching pain across my loins and no position I assumed would ease it and it hurt so to turn over that I had to take both hands and just pull myself over. The secretions from the kidneys were dark and full of sediment besides being so frequent in action that my night's rest was broken as many as several times. I used different kidney remedies but nothing touched the right spot until I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at W. E. Pelham's & Son's drug store. I was surprised at the result obtained. The sediment disappeared from the secretions and they resumed their natural appearance and action so that I could sleep all night and arise in the morning rested and refreshed. I have not had backache since."
